The Property and Casualty Group joins Bollinger, Inc.

Short Hills, NJ – (June 27, 2011) Bollinger, Inc. announces the acquisition of The Property and Casualty Group (PCG) of Cranford, New Jersey.

PCG was founded in 1991 by Thomas K. Fontana and today it provides a wide array of commercial, and personal insurance services to more than 1000 clients located throughout NJ, NY and CT. Tom Fontana will continue with Bollinger and serve as a Senior Vice President. He and his staff will be relocating to Bollinger's Short Hills location.

"This is a great opportunity for our clients, our staff and me personally", stated Fontana, "While our name will change, our customers will receive the same excellent customer service, but will also benefit by a broader selection of insurance products, markets and technical support."

"We are pleased to welcome Tom Fontana and his staff to our organization," said Jack Windolf, Chairman and CEO of Bollinger, "and we are excited about the additional services that our combined size will allow us to bring to the clients of The Property and Casualty Group."
